SEND CODE

Notice:

Since your LunaDNA account can be used to access all of your shared health and DNA data, we require two-step authentication to ensure you are actually who you say you are. When you log into your account, we will use your phone number to send you a text message as an additional authentication step. Your phone number is your personal data, and as such will be protected in accordance with our privacy policy.

A code will be sent to your phone after you click "send code".

Type that code in on the next screen.

After verifying your email address and phone number, your account is now secured, and your identity is verified. You will now be asked to consent to research being able to use the data you bring to LunaDNA.

With your consent, we can reshape research together.

Consent Agreement

Sharing Genomic, Health, or Medical Data to the LunaDNA Platform Means Consenting to Share Your De-Identified Aggregate Data for Ethical Research

This platform is part of a novel endeavor to give individuals a way to exert their right to control their own data, to speed up research on the things that matter to them, to share in the value created from that research, and to ultimately find avenues to better health. This agreement includes the elements of consent as required by major oversight bodies.

In this Agreement with LunaPBC, the public benefit corporation that owns and manages this platform, we refer to genomic data (that is, data about your genes, or DNA) and medical or health data (for example,

By clicking CONFIRM, you are agreeing to be legally bound by the above terms, including the Privacy Policy ⬀.

DOWNLOAD CONSENT ⬀

The LunaDNA Consent will be translated and provided in a separate document. It gives you the option to allow the KCNT1 Foundation to act as your sponsor or ward of your de-identified data, giving them permission to decide whether or not to allow specific researchers to access the de-identified data for analysis and drug development efforts.

After you have decided whether or not you want to consent, you can click on "confirm consent" to proceed into LunaNA.com. You always have the option to revoke your Consent.

You will be taken to a study page that contains a series of surveys for you to take. Currently the surveys are only available in English and Spanish but other languages will be available later. The Genetic Epilepsy and Top Tasks and Seizure Classification Surveys for KCNT1 will be available in the near future. Some surveys are designed to study the general public and are not designed specifically for KCNT1 and are optional.

COVID-19 Study

To participate in the COVID-19 study, please complete the following surveys. This enables researchers to understand your experiences, both physical and mental, as the world deals with the coronavirus.
